Seniors, huh!
Well they finally made it.
Let's see —
what are some
qualities which
seniors are supposed to possess?
Dignity! The kids
did look sharp
all dressed up
for their prom.
Or leadership!
The big wheel
promoters of
high school activities; but what a
big difference that
diploma will make.
Shall we take a
peek at them? Well,
now they do look
rather important
don't they?

Hi! Are you
getting as
tired as I am? Let's
stop here
for a while and take a
look at the underclassmen. Just think, it won't
be too long before these kids
are seniors too.
You know what
amazes me, how
all the largest
class rings are
toted on the
smallest hands
and vice versa!

The Reading,
'Riting, and
'Rithmetic side
of school is all right, but I'm
for having a
great time.
What better
way is there
of doing this
than living it
up in all the
extra-curricu-
lar activities.
Shall we give it
a whirl?

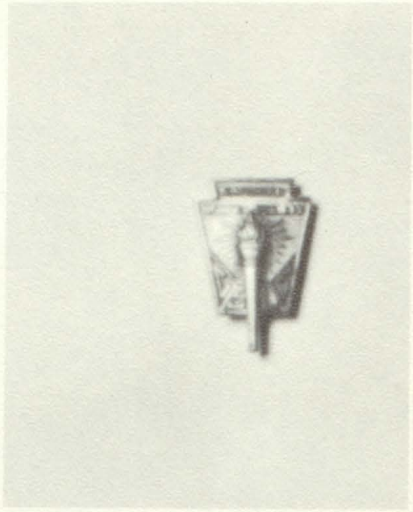
National Honor Society



Now Randy will take you for a peek at our two national honor societies, the more serious side of high school life.

The National Honor Society was founded in 1929. Its purpose was to bring recognition to those students in secondary schools whose scholarship, leadership, service, and character excel the average scholar's ability. Many young people in high schools throughout the United States have met these qualifications and have become members of the National Honor Society.

The Galesburg-Augusta High School has participated in the Honor Society since 1950 and has contributed 45 members to the society during that time.

Back row: L. Christler, J. Frank, C. Hoag, Mr. Burrell, D. Hoffman

National Thespian Society

The National Thespian Society was established in 1929 for the purpose of improving dramatic arts in secondary schools. The society is sponsored by the teachers and students who make up its membership. It is an "honor" society in the sense that the students are granted membership for having performed in high school plays or any field of dramatic art, and have met the qualifications of their own troupes. The aims of this society are to establish and advance standards in all phases of dramatic art and to create an active and intelligent interest in this field among high school students.

Sure can't go
at my usual

I just stopped

The cheering squad
